

John Doe

123 Main Street. • Cambridge, MA 02139
(617) 555-1212 • jdoe@ivyleague.edu

EDUCATION

Harvard Law School, Receiving JD June, 2016

Activities:

Harvard Law and Policy Review, Columnist and Assistant Editor
Professor's Assistant, 2015 - 2016

Honors:

Vanderbilt University B.A., magna cum laude in Business Administration, June 2013
2012 Association of Honors Business Students: Ethics in Academics Award
2013 Chancellor's List of Promising Young Entrepreneurs

Activities:

Student Government Class Representative 2010-2012; President 2012-2013

EXPERIENCE

The Center For Business Law, Gainesville, Fl 2014 to Present

Researcher

After serving a four month internship, was hired as a legal researcher working to find answers to legal questions posed by small business owners in at risk communities. Worked directly with staff attorneys in composing advice for clients, and identifying o their resources that they could use.

OFFICE OF U.S. SENATOR Jane Smith, Washington, DC Spring 2011

Legislative Intern

Researched the impact of deregulation on small business owners. Interviewed special interest groups representing small business owners in Ms. Smith's district.

Chamber of Commerce Nashville, TN

2010 to 2011

Assistant to the Director of Communication

Researched topics of interest to local business owners and composed articles for the Chamber of Commerce's monthly newsletter.

PUBLICATION

Richard Smith and John Doe, The Importance of Protecting Small Business Interests in an Increasingly Hostile Environment, 13 Journal of Business Leaders, 121 (2014)

PERSONAL

Habit for Humanity Volunteer 2009 to Present